

SCORE provides resources and expertise to maximize the success of existing and emerging small businesses.

SCORE volunteer counselors are a highly skilled group of retired and working business managers and owners who have enjoyed business success and want to help you succeed.

This service is free and confidential. You can use the services as long as you need them.

Call the Chamber of Commerce to schedule an appointment with SCORE counselors.

www.scorenemass.org